- Championing Registered Nutritionists whose entry onto the UK Voluntary Register of Nutritionists (UKVRN) is an assurance that they meet our rigorous standards of competence and professionalism.
- Supporting Frontline Health and Social Care Workers with essential tools enabling individuals to evaluate and enhance their competence to use nutrition safely and competently in their practice.
- Recognising High Quality, Relevant Nutrition Training through our Course Accreditation, CPD Endorsement and Certification schemes.

Our Charitable Objects Are:

- To promote the health of the public by the promotion and maintenance of high standards of practice among and the regulation of nutritionists;
- To advance the study and practice of nutritional science and medicine;
- To advance the education of the public and to promote research for the public benefit in the field of nutrition, health and allied subjects.

We Achieve This By:

- Maintaining a Register of individuals who demonstrate extensive understanding of nutritional science and practice and agree to uphold ethical standards through a comprehensive Code of Ethics.

Review of Activities for Public Benefit

The UKVRN

1.1 At the heart of the AfN is the UK Voluntary Register of Nutritionists (UKVRN). The purpose of the UKVRN is to recognise and encourage high standards of professional training in nutrition. Only individuals who meet the highest standards in evidence-based science and professional practice of nutrition can join and remain on the Register. The UKVRN protects the public by recognising and encouraging high standards of training and practice in nutrition.

1.2 Governance of the UKVRN enables us to set proficiency and competency criteria, promote continuing professional development and safe conduct for the benefit of the public. All nutritionists registered with the UKVRN must have specialist competencies in nutrition normally including a BSc (Hons) or MSc in a nutritional science (recognised by us as meeting our standards for course accreditation,) or equivalent and follow our Code of Ethics and Statement of Professional Conduct. Following the introduction of a single unified title in July 2012, registrants may use the letters RNutr after their name to designate their professional status; for Associate Registrants the designation is ANutr.

1.3 We continue to invest in growing the Register through active promotion of the benefits of registration and in the introduction of our new Register structure and competency requirements.

Register totals at 31 March 2013;
Associate Nutritionist (ANutr) 623
Registered Nutritionist (RNutr) 579
Fellow (FAfn) 11

Register totals at 31 March 2013 (Register Totals 31st March 2012
1213 (1085)

Associate Applications to 31 March 2013;
ANutr Direct Entry 238
ANutr Portfolio Entry 15
Applications turned down 1

Registration Applications to 31 March 2013;
RNutr Portfolio Entry only 30
ANutr to RNutr transfers 21
Total number of applications 283

1.4 The registration team also responds to questions from the public about nutrition careers and courses. In the period to 31 March 2013 about 230 queries were answered by the Registration team. The Registration team also advises students and graduates about joining the Register. In the period to 31 March 2013 the team responded to about 290 requests for information and advice about registration.

1.5 The introduction of a unified title and associated new competency requirements on 31st July 2012 was a significant step forward in protecting the public from unsafe practice and facilitating the promotion of the skills of Registered Nutritionists to employers, the public and... wider workforce. To support the introduction of unified title and associated new competency requirements we:
- Wrote to all AfN accredited course leaders, Registrants and Associates explaining the changes, enclosing summary copies of the new competency requirements.
- Requested Full Registrants indicate their specialist areas of competence from specialist areas; Animal, Food, Nutrition Science, Public Health and Sports & Exercise nutrition.
- Created new fields in our database to enable searches by specialism, to improve the online details held for registrants and to take into account the changes to title.
- Improved the public profile of our database and website so registrants can add LinkedIn and Twitter links and a 400 character profile to their database entry.
- Published supporting documentation to accompany the new competency requirements; application and competency mapping forms, assessment forms, guidance documents, summary of changes etc and updated our web-pages.
- Developed new marketing material, including leaflets, to distribute at events, conferences and talks.

1.6 Two renewal membership cycles in October 2012 and April 2013 (the April cycle begins in March of each year) were an opportunity to test our new suite of registration renewal communications. All registrants who renewed their registration received by post a newly designed Certificate of Registration, with expiry date. Registration cards were available on demand at cost price. All lapsed registrants received a survey to complete, either by email or by post. The main factor in a lapsed registrant’s decision not to renew UKVRN registration was financial: 54% of lapsed registrants stated they would consider rejoining in the future.

1.7 The Registration team have worked with our database suppliers, Dataware, to improve the reporting available through Subscriber to provide more detailed analysis of entry onto the register and the fees applicable. In addition to changes already made the team will be able to more accurately identify the breakdown of registrants initial application fees and annual renewal fees. We are also examining how further changes can be made to the database to improve efficiency in our work.

1.8 In October 2012 we conducted a registrant’s questionnaire; 356 registrants completed an on-line survey. Through the survey we learnt more about our registrants’ demographics, our customer service, CPD, website & social media uptake.

1.9 As part of the renewals process, in January 2013 we identified and approached those eligible for upgrade from Associate to full Registration.

Fostering Professional Expertise with the launch of Regional Representatives

2.1 Fostering professional expertise and encouraging a greater sense of community amongst registrants by recruiting Registered Nutritionists (on a voluntary basis) to represent AfN at regional level. Alice Cameron, AfN Marketing Executive, led this piece of work. A planning meeting for potential Regional Representatives was held on 12th July 2012 at the AfN offices following a call for volunteers in the email newsletter. At 31st March 2013 we had volunteers for ten regions: East, East Midlands, Greater London, North West, Scotland, South East, South West, Wales, West Midlands, Yorkshire & the Humber.
2.2 A briefing note describing the role of regional representatives was developed and feedback was sought from registrants via the registrant email newsletter on the desired activities/ potential of a regional network, for discussion at the briefing meeting.

2.3 Using data supplied by the Office for National Statistics we updated our database to facilitate bulk emails to Registered Nutritionists by region. We agreed all mass communications between volunteer regional co-ordinators and registrants would be managed centrally to protect the integrity of AfN brand & good name, and to ensure we do not breach data protection regulations.

2.4 Regional Representatives were encouraged to establish regional networks to support local events and networking. Regional activities through 2012-13 Include:
- Talks in universities (Wales, East)
- Representing AfN at consultation events (Wales, Scotland)
- Representing AfN at conferences and fairs (Chester, Manchester, Sheffield)
- Delivering a CV Workshop (South East)
- Mentoring (London)
- Arranging work placements (London)

Promotion of Title to the Public, Wider Workforce and Employers

3.1 On 31st July 2012 we introduced a unified title and associated new competency requirements, designed to protect the public from unsafe practice. To facilitate the promotion of the skills of Registered Nutritionists to employers, the public and wider workforce we identified key opportunities to communicate with our target audience, including developing our social media platforms and revising and updating our own website.

Recognising High Quality, Relevant Nutrition Training

Course Accreditation

5.1 Following the introduction of unified title and associated new competency requirements on 31st July 2012, Accreditation Committee revised its Course Accreditation Standard Operating Procedures for Universities preparing to apply for, or renew, course accreditation, to include detailed competencies in Science, Food Chain, Social and Behavior, Health and Wellbeing and Professional Conduct. In order for graduates of accredited courses to continue to benefit from direct entry, universities must be able to demonstrate that their courses meet standards for registration across the five core competence areas.

5.2 As with the core competencies for registration, the new Standards ensure graduates will have a knowledge and understanding of the scientific basis of nutrition, an understanding of the nutritional requirements from molecular through to population level, whether human or animal systems; a knowledge and understanding of the food chain and its impact on food choice and the integration of the food supply with dietary intake; a knowledge and understanding of food in a social or behavioral context at all stages of the life course; an understanding of how to apply the scientific principles of nutrition for the promotion of health and wellbeing of individuals, groups and populations; recognising benefits and risks; an understanding of professional conduct and the AfN’s code of ethics and be able to demonstrate good character.

5.3 Course Accreditation renewals took place in December 2012. Forty-eight courses renewed their accreditation. In the summer submission cycle, there were three successful submissions for reaccreditation and one successful new accreditation. In the December submission cycle, seven applications for new course accreditation were received and one submission for reaccreditation. These were assessed and considered by the Accreditation Committee in April 2013.

5.4 In the autumn of 2012, the Accreditation Committee reviewed and revised its appeals process.

5.5 In December 2012, an appeal was received from a University regarding its application for accreditation, which was resolved in accordance with the appeals process.

5.6 The Committee accepted the resignation of Dr Lisa Jackson as Chair of the Committee for a period of twelve months and thanked Dr Jackson for her hard work in steering the Committee since the formation of the AfN. The Committee agreed that Prof Julie Lovegrove, Vice Chair, should assume the Chair of the Committee until Dr Jackson is able to return to the Committee.

CPD

6.1 Since launching in November 2011, AfN has approved 34 applications for CPD endorsement, covering a variety of learning activities from conferences, workshops and webinars. Details of endorsed activities appear on our website, e-newsletter and social media sites.

6.2 All endorsed course providers receive a unique numbered logo which they are permitted to use in their marketing.

6.3 In order to ensure that the CPD Endorsement activity provides a robust quality standard, assessor guidelines have been drawn up along with an assessment form which generates greater consistency amongst assessors in their decision making.

6.4 Due to the growth in CPD endorsement applications an additional CPD assessor was recruited.

Course Certification

7.1 A key outcome of the TSIP-funded Nutrition & Health Inequalities Project, 'Improving Capacity, Competence and confidence in nutrition across the workforce,' was an ambition to recognise and support standards in course delivery and content of nutrition training for the wider workforce. A Certification Working Group, led by Jackie Landman, was established in November 2012 to continue the work of the Training Evaluation Development Team (EDT) to develop procedures and criteria to support the Course Certification, designed to promote high quality training and including nutrition competence, educational and organisational standards.

7.2 The Certification Working Group developed criteria to assess courses submitted for Certification, guidance for both course providers and evaluators on how to map courses against the Workforce Competence Model, a suite of documents to support both the application and evaluation process, an application form, guidance document to support both course providers and assessors in mapping courses against the Workforce Competence Model, a mapping proforma, terms and conditions and fee structure. A briefing session was held to ensure all assessors understood their role, the certification process and the criteria. The session also included a mock course application to bring consistency in assessment process.

7.3 By December 2012, two courses had been submitted for evaluation; Nutrition and Caring for Older People Living in the Community, Bournemouth University; and Understanding Human Nutrition, Open University. Both courses were recommended for AfN Certification. The work of the Certification Working Group was incorporated into the new Certification Standing Committee established in January 2013 and supported by 10 volunteer course certification assessors.

7.4 By 31st March 2013 three applications had been made for course certification and the following courses achieved AfN Certification and listing on the AfN web-portal.
Nutrition and Caring for Older People Living in the Community, Bournemouth University
- IASO SCOPE E-learning (Specialist Certification of Obesity Professional Education)
- Understanding Human Nutrition, Open University (subsequently withdrawn due to course restructuring)

7.5 All certified course providers receive a unique numbered logo which they are permitted to use in their marketing materials. Certified courses are listed on the Certification website and details appear in our e-newsletter and social media sites. Course providers can choose either a basic or enhanced course listing allowing 150 extra searchable words for course description, featured listing format, photo, organisation logo and tagline. Course certification assessors were asked to provide constructive feedback where appropriate in order to promote areas of improvement and help course providers extend their training further. This has been positively received by training providers.

Supporting the Wider Workforce

Launch of new web portal

8.1 The web portal wireframe, to support capacity and confidence in nutrition across the wider workforce competence was completed in May 2012 and certification website launched on 15th February 2013.

8.2 The certification website provides an access point for information on the Workforce Competence Model, Certified training courses, nutrition related events, forums and case studies with the aim of supporting workers in nutrition and to encourage networking at ground level. Individuals can choose to subscribe to a personalized ‘Member’s area’ and access online competence assessments leading to AfN Certification of Nutrition Competence, dedicated CPD log, tailored events/training relevant to their role and discussion forum. Subscription to the member’s area costs £10 and is valid for one year. To support the launch of the new web portal a new front page to www.associationfornutrition.org was commissioned from which both our new and existing web sites are signposted.

Introduction of AfN Certificate of Nutrition Competence at Levels 3, 4 & 5+

9.2 Work commenced in May 2012 to develop the assessment question bank to underpin the delivery of AfN Certification of Nutrition Competence at Levels 3, 4 & 5. Selection Talent Management Specialists were commissioned to develop the self-assessment question bank and a panel of subject experts developed a series of questions to assess competency statements in the Workforce Competence Model. The questions were trialed to check their effectiveness and validity among the target workers at Levels 3, 4 & 5+ in June 2012. The trial period closed with over 180 participants involved in validating the various types of questions (situational and knowledge based items). STMS scored the answers to check the accuracy of the assessment design and the accessibility among the participants. A statistical review of the scores followed, finalising the items and adjusting/normalising the results generating an appropriate feedback mechanism.

9.2 Difficulty in the scoring of the question bank and our ability to upload the second version of questions caused significant delay to the launch of the web-portal. Integrating the question bank with the web portal was done manually and undertaken by the Certification

Association for Nutrition Trustees Annual Report for the year ending 31st March 2013
Manager and an AfN volunteer, Anita Lyons, who had previously worked with Stephanie Radford and her team on the project. Upload of the question bank was completed in January 2013. In house testing of the question bank followed during which a number of formatting issues were identified and resolved as quickly as possible and at minimal cost prior to launch.

9.3 The question bank consists of either knowledge based or situational based questions. The question type used was determined by the requirements of each competency areas-whether the competency required specific knowledge and understanding or a more subtle behavioural and judgment based capability in order to demonstrate competent nutrition practice. To add an extra layer of robustness, each competency has two parallel versions at each assessment level. The online tests have not been designed as educational tests but have been designed to test the knowledge and skill of frontline workers and are underpinned by the Workforce Competence Model in Nutrition framework.

Completion, (in July 2011) of our TSIP-funded Nutrition & Health Inequalities Project, ‘Improving Capacity, Competence and confidence in nutrition across the workforce.’ Certification

10.1 The End of Project report was successfully submitted to the Department of Health by the deadline (31 June 2012). This marked the official end date of the Nutriton & Health Inequalities Project.

10.2 On 1st January the Certification Committee was formed as a Standing Committee of Council to oversee the implementation of the outcome of the TSIP-funded project. Two key pieces of work were progressed and operationalised in Standing Operational Procedures approved by AfN Council in February 2013; Course Certification and AfN Certificate of Nutrition Competence. The aim of the Certification operation is to be self-financing by March 2013.

Finance

13.1 The finance function was consolidated during the year with a review of the internal controls and a full update of the documentation of our financial procedures. The trustees and managers were provided with regular detailed management accounts for each activity stream. The budgeting procedures have been improved, and a review of our taxation position was undertaken. A formal risk management review process was initiated.

13.2 The previously outsourced book-keeping function has been brought in house from April 2013. This is expected to provide greater reliability and flexibility as well as cost savings. We welcome Paula Reilly to the team as our new finance and administration officer from April 2013.

Office Accommodation & IT

14.1 In February 2013 we sub-let our Project Office to SANDS, saving approx. £8,500 a year in rent. Our landlord, RSPH, offered storage space in the vaults beneath 28 Portland Place to store our archived files to make room for the move.

14.2 In December 2012 our outsourced IT consultants, Ameris, carried out a review of our computing requirements/infrastructure in anticipation of our office reorganisation. The review highlighted the variety of operating systems and versions of MS Office used by the team, from MS 2003 to MS 2010, and a variety of different security/spyware programmes installed on our machines. Ameris recommended upgrading the operating systems of our four oldest PC’s to support current versions of MS Office 2013, and for the remaining three machines to have MS Office 2013 installed, at the total cost of £2,805. BP&G agreed by email on 29th January to authorise the capital expenditure, in the interests of greater productivity and staff effectiveness, and the computers have now been installed.
Reserves policy

General (unrestricted) reserves are required to fund possible deficits based on the current level of expected income and planned expenditure, whilst and until regular and reliable income streams are grown to meet the required operational expenditure and our core activities become self-supporting. A minimum of six months net operational deficit, which is estimated to be £30,000, is to be retained as an absolute minimum level of reserve. This minimum level would allow time for expenditure cuts to be made to match income levels, should planned growth not be achieved.

At present the charity’s current level of reserves of £130,000 significantly exceeds this minimum threshold. These additional funds are being held to help fund the planned budget deficit for the current year which is funding future growth of our core activities, cover potential tax liabilities and also a potential loss arising from investing in the development of a new source of income this year.

The policy is kept under regular review by the Business, Planning and Governance Committee as budgets are updated, and formally reviewed and approved by all the trustees at least once a year. The next review will take place in June 2014.

Future Plans for Public Benefit

Our activity for 2012-13 will remain focused around our three strategic aims. In addition, Council has embarked on a business planning process to set and update the Association’s Vision, Mission and Business Plan for the period 2013-16.

(b) preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company as at the end of each financial year and of its surplus or deficit for each financial year in accordance with the requirements of Sections 394 and 395 and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the charitable company.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small charitable companies and with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008).

The financial statements were approved by the Board of Trustees on 25th September 2013:

M J Wiseman, Honorary treasurer

1 PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES
The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are set out below.

(a) Basis of accounting
The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 and the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in March 2005.

(b) Fund Accounting
(i) Unrestricted Funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.
(ii) Restricted funds are subject to specific conditions imposed by the donor as to how they may be used. The purposes and uses of the restricted funds are set out in the notes to the accounts.

(c) Incoming Resources
All incoming resources are included in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount has been physically received or can be quantified with reasonable accuracy.

(d) Resources Expended
Expenditure is recognised on an accruals basis as a liability is incurred, and includes any VAT which cannot fully be recovered.
(i) Resources expended on charitable activities comprises expenditure related to the direct furtherance of the charity’s objectives. Where costs cannot be directly attributed, they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.
(ii) Governance costs are those incurred in connection with the management of the charity’s assets, organisational administration and compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements.

(e) Tangible fixed assets and depreciation
Tangible fixed assets costing over £500 (including any incidental expenses of acquisition) are capitalised. Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost on a straight line basis over their expected useful economic life. The rates of depreciation applied to each class of asset are:

IT & Office equipment - 33% straight line

(f) Investment income

The Third Sector Improvement Project resulted form a grant from the Department of Health to scope the training, educational and support needs for those involved in the delivery of nutritional advice in the health and social care sectors. The remaining funds were expended in the 3 months to June 2012. The project has now evolved into our Certification department as part of our core activities.

Independent Examiner’s Report to the Trustees of Association for Nutrition

I report on the financial statements of the charitable company for the year ended 31 March 2013, which are set out on pages 22 to 28.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity’s trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity’s gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ICAEW.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner’s report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and the seeking of explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a ‘true and fair view’ and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner’s statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
  (a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006, and
  (b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities (revised 2005) have not been met, or
- to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
