AfN Manifesto Review

We have reviewed the manifestos from the main political parties for the forthcoming General Election and produced a summary of each parties pledges for the next government which relate to nutrition and public health.

To read a copy please click here