

Consultation questions on the:

Draft AfN Undergraduate Curriculum in Nutrition for Medical Doctors

Are you responding as an:

- Individual
- Organisation
 - Name of organisation

Do you agree that in order to deliver the NHS Long-Term Plan medical students/practitioners require:

- More training in the fundamentals of clinical nutrition?
 - Yes
 - No
- Better understanding of the role of nutrition professionals/nutrition support teams and the referral options?
 - Yes
 - No

Do you support more nutrition science being incorporated into the curriculum of undergraduate medical students?

- Yes
- No

Do you agree that the undergraduate curriculum in nutrition for medical doctors should provide a foundation to be developed further during post-graduate and CPD training?

- Yes
- No

Do you agree that nutrition is relevant to all clinical systems and should be embedded within the general medical undergraduate curriculum, rather than taught as a discrete clinical specialty?

- Yes
- No
 - Please give reasons

Do you agree that the document format described on page 10 is helpful for identifying what level of information is required by each role within medical schools?

- Yes
- No
 - Please give reasons

Do you find the structure of key competencies > graduate outcomes > curriculum statement and teaching points clear and easy to understand?

- Yes
- No
 - Please give reasons

Are there any key competencies for undergraduates you feel should not be included?

- No
- Yes
 - Which and why

Are there any key competencies for undergraduates you feel are missing?

- No
- Yes
 - Which and why

Do you feel the graduate outcomes are realistic and achievable if the nutrition curriculum is embedded within undergraduate medical training?

- Yes
- No
 - Please give reasons

Are there any graduate outcomes you feel should not be included?

- No
- Yes
 - Which and why

Are there any graduate outcomes you feel are missing?

- No
- Yes
 - Which and why

For each curriculum section you will be asked:

Do you agree with the Curriculum Statement?

- Yes
- No
 - Please give reasons

Are there any teaching points for the curriculum statement that you feel should not be included?

- No
- Yes
 - Which and why

Are there any teaching points for the curriculum statement that you feel are missing?

- No
- Yes
 - Which and why

Do you have any examples of good practice, where nutrition has been incorporated into the undergraduate medical school curriculum?

- Yes
- No

If yes please provide details and contact details for further information

Are there any specific implementation resources, information sources, official recommendations and/or public health/intervention programmes or initiatives that you feel should be included in the implementation and resources to support the curriculum?

- Yes
- No

If yes, please provide details (and links if available)